

Dr Kuheli Bhattacharya completed her M.B.B.S from Seth Gowardhandas Sunderdas Medical College, and King Edward Memorial Hospital (KEM), Mumbai, India & went on to do her Master in Surgery in Ophthalmology from the Goa Medical College and Goa University. She then went on to pursue 2 Fellowships at the International Council of Ophthalmology, (Basic Science Examination in Ophthalmology & Optics and Refraction Examination in Ophthalmology) followed by 2 Separate Fellowship trainings at PBMA's HV Desai Eye Hospital at Pune (Fellowship in Phacoemulsification Surgery & a Fellowship in Medical Retina), after which she underwent a Fellowship in Paediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismology at Aravind Eye Hospital, Madurai, followed by an International fellowship in Paediatric Ophthalmology, where she trained under Dr. Brian Campolattaro of the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary of Mount Sinai, New York. Dr. Kuheli is a very active blogger & has multiple Social media handles in addition to being a Published author & a Fortnightly columnist on eye diseases.